

ABORIGINAL & TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER LAW STUDENTS OPPORTUNITY AWAITS!

Apply now for KWM's uniquely flexible, immersive work placement and professional skills development program, co-designed with and for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander law students.

Practical on the job training in one of Australia's best law firms

Mentor and buddy to help you learn and grow

Modules for industry specific training and development

10 Cadets across 5 KWM Centres

Conference attendance at the National Indigenous Legal Conference

Networking and shadowing with corporate legal counsel and barristers

Alumni become part of KWM Community Impact's Alumni network

Optional secondment experiences with community legal centres and government related justice agencies

30 DAY PAID PROGRAM:
May - November 2023

QUESTIONS?
emma.taylor@au.kwm.com

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
communityimpact.kwm.com

Waiwa Mudena is a phrase in the language of the grandmother of the artist whose artwork is reflected in our program logo, Robby Wirramanda. Robby uses the phrase to mean 'to rise up and go after'. The language of Robby's grandmother is Wergaia.

